The Sydney Summer Series is an exciting programme of after-work running events for those who would like a navigational challenge in the cool of Sydney’s summer evenings. The events are held in some of the city’s finest harbour-side parks and suburban bushland areas every Wednesday evening from early October to early April. Start times for all events are anytime between 4.30pm and 6.45pm, and all events are on regardless of the weather.

For full details about the series, refer to the website
